We are a second-generation, family-run business well established within the local community. Over the past two decades we have helped local trade move their business forward and homeowners find solutions to their needs. Our high end, market-leading PVC-u products and great service are a winning combination. We look forward to helping you soon. Here at Newline Plastics we stock high-end, market-leading PVC-u products such as fascias, soffits and guttering through Swish Building Products' Summit & Kayflow range. We work closely with a number of other well-respected suppliers to bring an array of quality items to you. For now, we have a selection of products available through our website but more will follow and you
