JK Plumbing, located in Burlingame, CA, began in 2007 with that lack of fear and coupled with a focus on getting plumbing problems solved correctly the first time. That's why our company tagline is, "Do It Right the First Time." No one wants their plumbing emergency the first time. We know it's our responsibility to you, our valued customer, to diagnose your plumbing problem correctly and quickly. Then to fix that problem quickly and cost-effectively. We also know when the job is done the best way to deliver smiles to our customers' faces is to ensure you don't need to call us to come back and fix it a second time. JK Plumbing is a proactive, friendly, trusted, general plumbing services company serving homeowners and businesses owners from San Francisco, San Mateo, San Bruno, Daly City, Redwood City, and south to San Jose.
